

Points and whiskers are paired differences and 95% Monte Carlo intervals. M1–M2 is evaluated under matched sampling covariance; positive values mean a higher named metric.